

George L. Parrott, Ph.D.

Education:

Central Valley High School, Redding, CA (Valedictorian)
Honors at Entrance, UC, Berkeley
Bachelor's, Chico State, Psychology
M.A., Ph.D., Michigan State (Cognitive Experimental Psychology, NIMH Fellowship)

Career Positions:

Professor of Psychology at CSU, Sacramento 1969-2012 (Retired now)
Taught their graduate course on "teaching psychology" for 20 years
Receiving two campus wide awards for "outstanding teaching"

Fulbright Exchange Professor, Manchester Metropolitan University, U.K.
Invited Professor of Sports Psychology, University of South Australia, Adelaide
Fulbright Scholar, Institute of Social Sciences, Warsaw, Poland

Head Coach, Buffalo Chips Running Club, 28+ years

Currently....

Executive Board and President-Elect, Sacramento Electric Vehicle Association
Volunteer Instructor, English Conversation, West Sacramento Library Program
Contributing Writer, Green Car Reports, major online source for high tech, driving options
Nov. 2015 gave 2 invited lectures at a Scientific Psychology conference in Kiev, Ukraine